

2019-2020 Storytelling Residencies

MURRAY
PARKS & RECREATION

*Registration must be complete and returned with permission slip on the first day of workshops!

WHO: Open to students grades 3 -12 and adults

WHAT: Students will be asked to:

1. Find and bring a potential story (3-6 minutes) to first workshop.
*If trouble finding a story, stories can be obtained at first workshop
2. Learn storytelling skills and share in a workshop setting to polish story.
3. Practice at home!
4. Participate in preliminary judging, finalists per grade chosen for city wide showcase on April 18, 2020.

* Story Crossroads, a county festival, is planned for May 13, 2020 at Murray Park and other county facilities. Murray will be selecting up to 15 finalists from our city showcase to participate. This is a great opportunity and fun way for children, teens, and adults to develop story writing and storytelling skills.
